What Lady Will Win the Blue?

Special Feature at Fair Today Is $10 in Gold to Best Looking Woman on Grounds
at 3 O'Clock

Who will be the best looking woman on the grounds at three o'clock this afternoon?

Whoever she is, she will receive $10 in gold, this nice little sum having been hung up by the Association, as one of the special features of the day. There is no doubt but what the judges will have a hard time deciding this ring, for there are no better looking women anywhere in the world than right here in Lincoln and adjoining counties.

Read the Daily Interior Journal tomorrow and see who was adjudged the most beautiful woman on the grounds this afternoon at three o'clock.

The complete program for today, as well as the Floral Hall premiums, is as follows:

FIRST DAY—AUG. 21.

95—Best pony rig $15—$10 to 1st; $5 to 2d.

The entries in this ring will form in front of the court house, on Main street at 9:30 A. M., on Wednesday the first day of the fair, and headed by the band and officers of the fair, will march to the grounds.

The awards will be made by the vote of the spectators.

The entries of this ring must be driven by boy or girl under 12 years of age, and may be driven single or double.

Pony or ponies, vehicle, harness and occupants will be considered in awarding the premiums.

Cattle—Jersey Cattle.

96—Best Jersey cow, 2 years old and over $10; $7 to 1st $3 to 2d.

97—Best Jersey heifer, under 2 years old $10; $7 to 1st; $3 to 2d.

98—Best Jersey bull, any age, (age considered) $10; $7 to 1st; $3 to 2d.

99—Best herd of Jerseys, consisting of 1 bull and 3 or more cows $15; $10 to 1st; $5 to 2d.

Pony Parade To Fair Grounds

Four Handsome Little Equines Driven By Blue Grass Youngsters Compete in First Ring.

Slight showers early Wednesday morning, delayed the formation of the parade by the pony ring contestants to the fair ground. Grein's band stationed on the portico of the court house rendered sweet music in the early morning. The showers ceased before ten o'clock, and the pony parade was formed, and led by the band to the fair grounds.

Morgan Smith Baughman, drew No. 1 place in the parade with his crack little pony Jesse. Riding with him in his double seated trap were Miss Margaret Shanks, Mr. Heath Severance, and Miss Ida H. Pettus.

Entry No. 2 was driven by George Preece Paris with a beautiful and high stepping little horse. Riding with him were Miss Elsie Elizabeth Coleman. This pony is owned by Mr. W. J. Dozier, who bought it from Mrs. Hardin some time ago.

Entry No. 3 was driven by Joe Grimes and Miss Isabelle Givens, of Danville. They also had a little beauty, owned by Mr. Dozier.

Entry No. 4 was that of little Miss Pearl Embury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Embury, Jr., who had with her four of her schoolmates, Misses Annie Lee Embanks, Frances Tate and Mary Louise Woods. Their rig was beautifully decorated in the K. of P. colors.

Everyone who who bought a ticket to the fair today was given a vote ticket, to vote for the winner of the pony ring. Votes will be deposited in a special ballot box and the winner announced in tomorrow's paper.

Poultry Expert To Judge Birds

Louisville Post's Poultry Editor To Tie Ribbons on Fowls—Is in Charge of Egg Laying Contest at Frankfort

E. H. Borchers, Poultry Editor of the Louisville Evening Post, arrived Wednesday morning to judge the poultry exhibits at the K. of P. fair. Very few fairs in the state have had so high class an expert to judge the poultry shown. Mr. Borchers is personally in charge of the great egg laying contest, which is being held by the Post at the home of Senator Paynter near Frankfort.

Additional interest is lent to the presence of Mr. Borchers here by the fact that there are two Lincoln county entries in the big egg laying contest. Mrs. S. J. Embury, Jr., has a pen of her prize Buff Orpingtons in the contest and A. C. Alford has a pen of White Leghorns. Both are showing up well in the number of eggs laid, though neither is leading its class.

A Fourteen-Year-Old Bride

One of the youngest girls to be married in this county in a long time was Miss Maude Adams, of Garrard, who was married to Joseph Turner, of the same section by Rev. J. G. Livingston, at the home of Joe Coleman, in the Ottenheim section, this week. The young lady's age was just 14 years. She had written consent from her parents, for the marriage, else County Clerk Cooper would not have issued the license.

"KENTUCKY COLONELS"

Back From Delightful Fishing Trip To High Bridge

The Kentucky Colonels delightful-ly entertained their friends with a week's camping trip on Kentucky river at High Bridge last week. The fishing was had on account of muddy water but rowing bathing and hill climbing were fine and all joined heartily in the sport.

Several experts in different lines were developed. J. W. Fields proved himself a great fisherman and also a professor in swimming. A. W. Sampson is a genius as a sailing captain. Marion Fields as a marine engineer. R. C. Watkins played the role as hero. Miss Margaret Sampson and F. G. Watkins took the honors as chief cooks. S. L. Stephenson has changed his occupation from store keeper to that of an inventor. He is now engaged in making a camp bed that does not resemble a rock pile. Miss Sue Sampson holds the record as a bug swatter. Music was furnished by Miss Gladys Chamberlain, A. W. and R. N. Sampson in the evenings.

The party was composed of Mrs. W. M. Fields as chaperone; Misses Elizabeth Coppage, Pearl Fields, Gladys Chamberlain, Sue Sampson, of Harrodsburg, Margaret Sampson, of Harrodsburg, Edith Watkins, Grace Fields, Lucile Chamberlain, Ruth Fields, Messrs. J. W. Fields, Marion Fields, A. W. Sampson, R. W. Sampson, F. G. Watkins, R. C. Watkins, S. L. Stephenson, John Cecil, of Harrodsburg.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

The Aim And Purpose of The Daily Interior Journal.

The aim of the promoter, editor-in-chief, business manager, president, secretary and treasurer, etc., of the Daily Interior Journal is to make out of the enterprise just enough to pay the legitimate expenses of getting out the paper during the three days of the great Knights of Pythias fair. He does not expect to make a dollar and really doesn't care to do so. He has recently emerged from the rock-ribbed republican stronghold of Pulaski county, where he has been attempting to edit a democratic paper with his exchequer so full of duets that he hardly cares whether he even comes out even, with his work thrown in, or to make a long story short, whether school keeps or not during this delightful fair week. Editor Shelton M. Saffley, of the real dyed-in-the-wool Interior Journal (the Daily being sort of a makeshift for the time being and an infringer, as far as the name is concerned) kindly consented to lend us, for a small consideration, his magnificent machinery and splendid force of real printers to get out this paper.

The purpose of the Daily is to give a few seconds of pleasure to those who may tire looking at the excellent display of show stock that has already reached the grounds. It will prove, we believe, a pleasing diversion for a brief time at least to turn the eye and mind from the ponies and the people to the pages of the Daily Interior Journal, which will contain in the subsequent issues as much local lore as can be gathered. The momentous questions of the hour will not be discussed in these pages, but will be reserved for Brer. Snuffley, who knows how to do so, and who doubtless will discuss them at length. A democrat as we are, and always expect to be, and especially are we a hot one when the pie counter is almost in sight and we even imagine we smell the loaves and fishes, we feel like discarding our politics for the nonce and saying to the republicans, "Bull Moosers," the political prohibitionists, the socialists, and the rest of them, let us forget all such and enjoy this splendid fair the Knights of Pythias have made possible. Let us put aside political and other prejudices and join hand in hand in making the present fair the greatest one this glorious blue-grass garden of Eden has ever had. Let us try to make the visitor feel that it is good to be here and treat as our personal guest each of those from out of town who honor us with their presence. In fine let us make it a gain week--one that we will in after years look back upon with pride and pleasure.

The Daily Interior Journal wants all the personals, locals and news of any and all kinds that you can give it. It is the desire of the editor to make its columns fairly teem with matters interesting to the fair crowd and the God's chosen people among whom it is printed. You can help make the paper readable--it is up to you to do so.

We bid every visitor here today a hearty welcome. What we have is theirs; the latch string hangs on the outside and our homes are more than open to them. You are welcome to what you see, but should there be any thing you want and do not see--oblige these good Stanford people by asking for it. They want you to have all the good things in their possession and if they have said nothing about it is only because they have forgotten it.

May the joys of the week be yours.

HIGH COMPLIMENT

Paid a Lincoln County Horseman
By Leading Farm Paper

The Farmers' Home Journal last week pays high compliment to R. S. Scudder, of McKinney, this county in connection with account of the great show his horses are making at the fairs. The article says:

Dick Scudder is a real live wire in the horse business. He has just sold a bunch of horses which is, perhaps, the largest and highest priced bunch of horses sold by one individual in a long time. He sold the entire bunch, consisting of about ten head, to W. C. Massie, of Paris, Ky.

All of these horses are bred according to Dick's idea, being either by Rex Peavine or Dick's splendid stallion All Peavine and out of mares by Chester Dare. This idea of breeding is certainly right, as there is no cross in the world that can beat the Chester Dare and Rex Peavine cross.

Horses bred this way are the ones which have been winning for the past few years and are winning now.

The horse which is bred most fashionably along these lines is the colt, Imperator at Rex, out of Edna Mae and by Kentucky's Choice and by the way, don't think Dick let this youngster escape his notice, for he offered the highest price for him that has been offered for a suckling in many a day.

One of the best ones that Dick sold was the fine yearling stallion The Aristocrat, by All Peavine and out of Emma White. This colt won part of the futurity money at Lexington last year and is looked upon as one of the strongest candidates for the yearling division this year. He also sold Emma White and her fine filly, which is a full sister to the Aristocrat. This colt is a very fine one.

Katherine Hughley was the most noted thing he disposed of. This is one of the most noted brood mares in the state, as she is the dam of the two show horse celebrities, Jacqueline and Star Peavine. Katherine Hughley is by Chester Dare and has a very fine suckling filly by Rex Peavine, as are Jacqueline and All Peavine, which just goes to show that Dick's idea of the Chester Dare and Rex Peavine cross is the thing.

Another good one which he sold was the yearling filly, Irene McBride by Rex Peavine and out of a mare by Chester Dare. He also sold a brother to Hazel Dawn and other good ones which I will not mention.

This is an excellent bunch of horses and in the hands of Bob Shropshire, who will handle them for Mr. Massie, should develop into some fine show specimens.

Next to the Saddle Horse Colt Futurity of the K. P. fair here this week, chief interest in the rings for the youngsters is centering in the Mule Colt Futurity. Some exceptionally promising individuals are entered in this event and the competition will undoubtedly be keen. Harris & Woods have a suckling mare colt by Col. Harris' great jack Equiv, which is going to make 'em all step some to keep her out of the blue. This colt is a grand looking all over and will win in most any company. She was bred by J. W. Williams out of an exceptionally good mare and Bob Woods bought her when a few days old for $150. Mr. Woods, who is a splendid judge of a mule, saw her possibilities, and the way the young hybrid has developed has fulfilled his expectations. The great string of show mules of this popular firm were rested up the past week, but will be seen in the show ring here. There isn't a finer herd of show mules on the fair circuit in Kentuck today than these.

"A Woman's Honor."

"A Woman's Honor" is the name of a four-act drama that will be presented by home talent at the opera house for the benefit of the Knights of Pythias lodge here Thursday night. The play is a most interesting one, with abundant path and pathos. Following are the persons who will take part in the play with the characters they will represent: Judge John N. Menefee, Jr., then Mark Lester, Mack Fisher, Pedro Mendez, Wallace Singleton, Dr. Garcin, Will McCarty, Gilbert Hall, M. D., John Enelemon, Robert Glenn, Lester O'annon, Gregory Grimes, Russell Brown, Ebenezer, Miss Clara Cooper, Olive Saffie, Miss Mary Kendrick, Duddarar Murin, Miss Sarah Hundley. Some of those who will take part have had experience before the footlights and are worthy of a name higher than amateurs. The show will be worth the money and the fact that Miss Ella May Saunders will manage it guarantees that it will be creditable from beginning to end. Secure your seats today; the crowd promises to be a record-breaker and you may have to stand up if you do not buy early.

E. T. Pence Buys Huffman Place

The old Huffman place, on the Crab Orchard pike at the eastern edge of the city limits of Stanford, and one of the nicest little farms close to the city, changed hands last week, when T. W. Hutchison sold it to E. T. Pence, Sr., for $5,325. There are 43 acres in all in the property that changed hands, as Mr. Hutchison sold off 12 acres to Dr. W. B. O'Bannon a short while ago. These dozen acres lie at the rear of the place, and adjoin a piece of property

Dr. O'Bannon had there. Mr. Hutchison got $1,385 for the tract that went to the doctor, thus totaling $6,708 for the place which he bought about a year ago for an even six thousand. In addition to the $700 profit which he nets he harvests this year's crops. Mr. Pence will take possession of the farm about the first of the year, and intends to make it his home in the future. He recently sold his large farm at Rowland to his son-in-law, J. H. Wright, who has rented it to Adam Pence this year.

SECRETARY A. M. HIATT

Everybody's talking about the great success of the Brodhead fair this year. The above is a fair likeness of Secretary A. M. Hiatt, who probably had more to do with making it a big winner than any other one man.

Mr. Hiatt is one of the young men who are doing things in Kentucky in the present day. He taught for two years in the common schools of Rockcastle, after completing his education, then went to Louisville and took a business course, and after graduating was associated three years with the Stratton-Tersteppe

Hardware Co. He returned to Rockcastle in 1907 to accept the place of Assistant Cashier of the Citizens Bank of Brodhead, and in 1910 was elected cashier to succeed J. W. Hutchison. He is moving one of the best bank men ever known in Rockcastle, and takes a leading part in every public enterprise. He is married, having wedded Miss Lillie Smith, daughter of R. L. Smith, a prominent farmer of Hiatt.

Secretary Hiatt wants the I. J. to thank the Lincoln county people for their patronage and good will and invites them all back again next year.

Old in Age but Modern in Ways

The First National Bank of Stanford

is the oldest banking institution in this section of the state, having been organized March 9, 1854. A bank to have stood the punies that have occurred in the past 58 years must be all right. This bank today is stronger and better than it ever was.

While old in age it is modern in methods. Our patrons, and they are many, will testify to the fact that we take care of them in a manner both pleasing and satisfactory.

Your patronage is respectfully asked. Remember our pledge of courteous treatment and honorable dealings.

Our directory includes some of the most prominent business men and farmers in this section of the county. Try us.

RURAL TELEPHONES.

MR. FARMER:—Make your home as modern for your family as a nice residence, and place yourself in a position to get the latest market quotations at any time. This can be accomplished by means of our telephone service which you and your neighbors can get for a sum that is small compared with the benefit received. Call or address our nearest office or write direct to headquarters, Nashville, Tenn., for information regarding our special "Farmers Line" rate. If you are not at present enjoying telephone service, we can immediately interest you. Our lines cover the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, and the Southern portion of Indiana and Illinois.

MRS. ELIZA D. FLOWERS

Daughter of H. J. Darst. Dies a Home in Louisville.

It is with much regret that news of the death of Mrs. Eliza O. Flowers, of Louisville, was learned here. She is well known here and has many friends and relatives here. The Courier-Journal said of her death there: Just as Mrs. Elizabeth O. Flowers' two daughters were preparing to leave their home, 196 Cor. avenue, in Clifton, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, to go down town to witness the parade the mother, who was ill in bed suddenly became unconscious. Her daughters, summoned Dr. Wilboyt, but despite the efforts of the physician the woman passed away fifteen minutes later. The physician found death due to apoplexy.

Mrs. Flowers had been in ill health two weeks, but had been able to be about the house a great part of the time. Yesterday at noon she partook of a hearty meal, and was believed to be on the road to recovery.

The deceased was the widow of John W. Flowers. Besides her two daughters, Misses Lucile and Gladys she leaves two sons, John and William O. Flowers, and two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Owsley and Mrs. J. O. Newland, of Stanford, Ky.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence and at 2:30 o'clock at the Clifton Christian church. The interment will be in Cave Hill cemetery.

Homer Wray Not In Saddle This Year

Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Wray and family, of Danville, came over Tuesday so as to be here in plenty of time for the opening of the fair. There is no more enthusiastic K. P. in the state than Homer Wray and few finer judges of horseflesh. Mr. Wray rode Walter O. Walker's splendid string of horses for several years, but his duties as manager of the telephone exchange at Danville keep him so busy he has not time to devote to the equines any longer. He is making good at Danville, and the people there are very much gratified with the service he is giving them, his many friends will be glad to know.

Lincoln Horses Make Great Show

At the Blue Grass fair at Lexington Saturday, the most valuable prize of the day was the American Saddle Horse breeders' special for the finest registered saddle stallion mare or gelding under 4 years of age, which was won by the splendid All Peavine colt, Auto Be King bred by Dick Seudder, of Lincoln, and sold to W. C. Massie, and formerly known as The Aristocrat, under which name he won the National Saddle Horse Futurity for yearlings.

Bob Moreland, of Lexington, a former Stanford boy and brother of Mrs. W. C. Shauks, was the big winning exhibitor of the afternoon, five horses from his stable winning first ties, of which four were championships. Nickel Plate won both the harness and saddle championships, while Linda took the combined championship.

Confederate Pensions Delayed

Rev. R. R. Noel, a prominent local Confederate veteran has received a letter from Capt. W. J. Stone, Pension Examiner at Frankfort informing him that no Confederate pensions will be paid before November 5, none of the applications having been acted on in time to be payable on August 5, which is the date next preceding November 5, on which the law directs such disbursements shall be made. While the announcement will be a great disappointment to many applicants the letter gives the assurance that back pay will be eventually forthcoming from the date that the application has been received at the examiner's office. Examiner Stone states that 2,600 applications are on file, and many others are being received daily.

Florence Won't Run.

George D. Florence, of Stanford, Republican State Central Committeeman for the Eighth district, who was in Louisville yesterday, said that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself as Commonwealth's Attorney of the Thirteenth district, composed of Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard and Mercer counties. Mr. Florence was appointed Prosecutor during the closing days of Gov. Wilson's administration to succeed Charles A. Hardin, Democrat of Mercer county, who was elevated to the Circuit Judgeship. According to Mr. Florence, no Republican opposition will be given Emmet Parr-year, of Danville, who won the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney.—Louisville Times

Joe Kindig, the mule buyer has been scouring Lincoln for shippers for the southern market. He got 40 yearlings over in the Hubble section last week, half of them from F. F. Fitzpatrick and the rest from James Rankin, of the Marcellus neighborhood. He paid $100 a head for them.
